Foundations German 1 is the latest addition to the Foundations Languages series. This language series has been written specifically for the institution wide language programmes, IWLPs, now offered to most higher education students. These programmes teach languages to non specialist undergraduates, engineers, historians etc studying a language in addition to their main degree subject. The series is designed to cover the two semester year with in built supplementary material to cater for different numbers of contact hours. Written by IWLP practitioners, the series is tailored to the needs of the students. This is a complete beginner's course. Two cassettes are available with a site licence included in the price. Tapescripts are available free on request.

In Germany, political foundations (Stiftungen) play an important role in shaping civil society through political democracy education. The foundations, however, have also committed themselves to strengthening democratic political and societal structures abroad. Their joint mission abroad is the contribution to democratic structures, information and debate in the countries and regions they are working in. They complement the official German foreign policy but choose their own priorities and strategies. The focus of this thesis is the German political foundations as actors in democracy assistance. Democracy assistance focuses less on the aspects of technical assistance but much more on political parties and the promotion of civil society as the backbone of democracy. Democracy assistance is a relatively recent international development activity of governments and international
