these sermons attempt in the authors theological point of view try to answer many questions such as why do we refer to jesus as the good shepherd who according to corinthians and the apostle paul is entitled to take holy communion what does easter mean to christians how do we handle temptation why forgiveness is so important yet so difficult these sermons are well researched and provide biblical references to support the sermons these sermons are not meant to replace attending worship but to provide an additional insight to god and his son jesus christ ministry leader and evangelist provides readers with a proven do it yourself method for effective evangelistic sermons main description it is a widespread idea that the roots of the christian sermon can be found in the jewish derasha but the story of the interrelation of the two homiletical traditions jewish and christian from new testament times to the present day is still untold this book offers the papers of the first international conference bamberg germany 6th to 8th march 2007 which brought together jewish and christian scholars to discuss jewish and christian homiletics in their historical development and relationship and to sketch out common homiletical projects but will it preach the only good answer to this question often asked about a christian theology is to preach it which is to say to preach according to it to what it indicates reflectively and critically valid christian preaching ought to be this volume of selected sermons and homilies documents a career long attempt to do exactly that concerned at once to be faithful to the christian witness and to speak intelligibly and credibly to women and men here and now it represents the way of preaching and so directly calling for a christian commitment that is of a piece with the distinctive way of doing christian theology set forth and argued for in schubert ogden s other books and articles this is why each sermon or homily seeks so to interpret its scriptural text as to bring out its existential meaning for understanding ourselves and leading our lives as human beings today it is also why each of them in its way directly puts the question of decision raised by christian faith thus together with its companion volume to teach the truth this book offers a model for bearing witness to the truth as christians understand it this anthology carefully compiled and edited by lloyd jones s daughter and grandson begins with a general introduction to his life and ministry followed by a selection of his sermons from the 1930s to the late 1960s arranged in chronological order each sermon is preceded by an introduction detailing when it was preached what lloyd jones was doing at the time why the historical context gave rise to the sermon and how its message relates to the world today the collection includes sermons from 1939 at the start of world war 2 the early 1950s on the sermon on the mount when as j i packer put it lloyd jones was on a plateau of supreme excellence 1959 on revival preached again in 1980 as his last ever sermon 24 november 1963 two days after the assassination of president john f kennedy and 1968 the final sermons at westminster chapel this powerful volume presents lloyd jones s prophetic preaching anew for contemporary christians and will help them understand and appreciate his enduring influence and the biblical truths for which he stood
